

Col. Roosevelt's grave at Oyster Bay was reverently decorated on Memorial Day by veterans of three wars. Hundreds made the pilgrimage, including young and old men and women, white and black, Americans and foreign born, soldiers and sailors. Underwood & Underwood.

President Harding delivering a noteworthy Memorial Day address in the great amphitheatre at the National Cemetery, Arlington, Va. International.

Merchant sailors who gave their lives in the great war were remembered Memorial Day by the unveiling of a tablet at the Custom House. Mrs. Ruth Fisher and Miss Esta Gumaeibie drew the flag from the bronze. International.

Remnant of New York city's famous fighting Zouaves marching on Riverside Drive to its Memorial Day exercises. By a New York Herald staff photographer.

Above — Chaplain E. R. Evans, U. S. N., of the flagship Pennsylvania, reading a prayer at the unveiling of the Battery Park tablet erected in memory of navy men lost on the President Lincoln. By a New York Herald staff photographer.

Miss Clare Cassel, winner of the women's open lawn tennis tournament recently held at Montclair, N. J. Copyright, Keystone View.

At left — The largest wreath ever made, 90 feet in circumference, was hung on the base of the Statue of Liberty on Memorial Day by the United American War Veterans. Underwood & Underwood.

At right — Enrico Caruso and his wife, with Baby Gloria, photographed just before they sailed for Europe on the Presidente Wilson. Central News Service.

At left — Gold star mothers of navy men scattering flowers on the Hudson River on Memorial Day. Copyright, Keystone View.

